ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The KETCH Employment Services program is made possible through the End-Dependence Kansas (EDK) initiative.

- EDK is a 5-year initiative to increase employment of Kansans with disabilities.
- To be an EDK participant, individuals must be determined eligible for Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) services.

END-DEPENDENCE KANSAS

End-Dependence Kansas is funded through Title I - Vocational Rehabilitation of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (Title IV of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act). Funding is provided by the U.S. Department of Education (CFDA 84.126A). A total of 78.7% of the project funds are federal dollars referenced above. There are no non-government sources of funds.
